Yamsickle¹⁾ is a UK-based internet personality created by Ben²⁾. After much independent development of his personality, persona, and other related things, his creator made Yamsickle officially affiliated with the media collective Alternative Entertainment for assistance developing and supporting the character. This deal allows Alternative Entertainment to have creative input over the character and support the development of the character by providing stream assets, outfits, art, music, or other media while Yamsickle's creator has full legal control over the character. Should they split, his creator is allowed to use all the assets gained in the deal, granted he gives sufficient attribution.

Yamsickle's main content is his livestreams on the cunny.zone website on his profile, but he plans to expand his presence to include a Twitch, Kick, and YouTube channel where he will behave himself for the goal of creating a large following. He also plans to create a website of his own, yamsickle.live, a place where he will post his stream schedule, post official announcements, allow for the sale of possible future merchandise, provide VODs and clips of his livestreams, provide official links to all of his channels, and provide information and upcoming projects concerning Yamsickle.

As of October 27, 2026 Yamsickle's only web presence is his Discord account, cunny.zone account, and his MTW account for making wiki pages for his own benefit despite plans of more accounts coming soon.

Origin

Yamsickle first appeared on the internet as a VRChat persona in 2022 as a person obsessed with Communism.

Over time, however the character was given much-needed depth and development over the many years of its existence.

In early 2025, Yamsickle would stumble upon Filled With Nothing and his YouTube channel. After watching some of his videos from then and interacting with the culture surrounding him he decided to make his own episode of Cumball Alert, which he creatively named "Cumball Alert #2: The Fanisode" from this point on, Yamsickle would be known throughout the Cumball Discord server and beyond as a horny, degenerate British bastard.

AE Affiliation and Debut

In late 2025, Yamsickle decided to partner with Alternative Entertainment to help achieve his goals of creating a memorable character. Together they devised a plan to debut as a VTuber after researching the success of other internet personalities. After many weeks of development they planned to debut their new version of Yamsickle in November 2025, but due to the amount of work required to customize a VRChat model, create an original 3D environment, create original music for the character, and finalize the character as a whole design, personality, and story-wise, the debut was delayed until April 12, 2026. When that date arrived, everything that was planned was still not in a presentable state according to AE, so it was delayed even further to June 16, 2026. After many months of planning, development and many failed prototypes, the debut was delayed indefinitely, with no specific date planned for the debut.

The time and effort investment into the debut and character finalization were not a waste, however, as Yamsickle was able to score a customized VRChat model based on his favorite base, Karin by Komado that was customized to his liking. This model will be used in future Yamsickle events and projects that are planned for the latter half of 2026 and the first half of 2027.

As of August 2026, Alternative Entertainment is still working on the debut, although they have increased the scope from the more simple retexture and customization of an already existing VRChat base to a fully custom model based on art by AE-Prixmie that was made from input by Yamsickle. The debut is planned to be created by the same members who worked for months already with AE-Main doing the writing, AE-zen doing the music, and AE-Prixmie for the art, as well as new members like AE-FullNeko and AE-fellaxMax being responsible for the heavy amounts of 3D that stalled the project for months previously.

The debut is planned for 2027 and will be the beginning of Yamsickle's Duality story arc.

Affiliation with Filled With Nothing

Filled With Nothing and Yamsickle have been affiliated since the latter's creation of Cumball Alert: The Fanisode. Because of Filled's trust in Yamsickle, he quickly became a Cumball server admin and the only account other than his to have a full cunny.zone Channel. Yamsickle frequently suggests features and functionality to Filled to help him with the development of cunny.zone which initially were considered heavily and quickly implemented, but as of recently, the majority of his requests have been thrown out or ignored.

Also recently, Filled and Yamsickle have had many disagreements, mostly over their tastes in video games and their takes on OpSec. Yamsickle frequently states that their differences should be praised and that Filled is elitist in regards to video games and paranoid in regards to OpSec, saying that his tastes in video games is decent and his OpSec is good enough.

These disagreements and Filled's hatred (ironic or not) towards Yamsickle have caused many problems both in Cumball and beyond, as this page was vandalized heavily only a day by Filled after its creation. The exact motive behind this is unconfirmed, but due to recent events and disagreements it's logically presumed that Filled did this to get back at Yamsickle for his many wrongdoings against him.

"HE'S A FUCKING FAGGOT I HATE HIM SO MUCH HE RUINS ME CONSTANTLY AND ALL I CAN HOPE FOR IS HIS INEVITABLE DISAPPEARANCE INTO THE VOID OF NOTHINGNESS BECAUSE HIS RETARDED ASS 62 IQ BRAIN JUST THRIVES OFF DOING ABSOLUTELY NOTHING BUT BEING A WAGIE NYIGGER PIECE OF SHIT WHO CAN'T EVEN AFFORD TO PURCHASE THE THINGS I ASK OF HIM HE RUINED ME AND I LOOK FORWARD TO THIS PATHETIC LITTLE FAGGOT'S INEVITABLE DOWNFALL WHEN HIS DREAMS REMAIN AS DREAMS AS HE WAKES UP TO REALITY TO KNOW HE'S AN INCOMPETENT NYIGGER PIECE OF SHIT"

-A portion of Filled's vandalism.

Future plans

Yamsickle is working with Alternative Entertainment to make 3D animations and YouTube videos using his character. He plans on getting his YouTube channel up and running by late August and for his first few videos to be made independently while AE continues to work on the debut and other undisclosed Yamsickle projects in development. His YouTube is planned to be a variety YouTube channel that does a variety of videos in different genres, mostly to test what he is good at making.

However, there are difficulties with making original content using his character, as there is no wholly original version of Yamsickle as a character that can be licensed for use to Alternative Entertainment or to be used by Yamsickle himself without copyright issues.

Yamsickle is frequently shortened to ys or yamsc in file names or on the AE internal wiki

2)

This could be his real name.
