Monopole Mary and the Search for Epsteinium is an upcoming web comic created, written, and illustrated by bxfxpy. Despite being worked on for many months, no known copies of it exist anywhere, making it possibly abandoned with pages of it being lost media.

Plot

The titular character Monopole Mary with the help of Dipole David searches for the rare material discovered by Jeffery Epstein, who named it Epsteinium.

They supposedly break into Zorro Ranch, one of Epsteins heavily developed and long-owned properties to look for Epsteinium.

Epsteinium is a material similar to Australium from the Team Fortress 2 universe, presumably giving similar effects if used properly such as life extension, physical enhancement and more.
