Characters

Natshirotan (fictionalized, presumed)

Natshiro, Nat, also known by her username natshirotan is a female pedophile with a deep attraction to boys under 16¹⁾, an active consumer of shotacon pornography, an active Matrix user, and a former Steam user²⁾ Her username is derived from the name of the artist Amashiro Natsuki, who is the artist behind the art featured in her profile picture, and is a blend of her first and last name with the Japanese honorific tan added to the end of it. This profile picture would be used on Matrix and Steam until a period of time after her Steam account was given away.

She is presumed to be a roleplayer as she is blatantly pedophilic, types a certain way, and uses her account for her own entertainment, sexual or otherwise. Her friends Marisa and nathatpastel are also roleplayers with the latter also being a self-admitted pedophile.

Origin

Natshiro created her cuteworld.space Matrix account in or before 2022 and would join Cumball's bridged Matrix room the same year. There, she would make quick friends with Cumball's creator Filled With Nothing who would quickly recognize her as a pedophilic roleplayer.

Steam

Natshiro would make a Steam account in 2022(?) to play multiplayer games with Filled With Nothing. After a year of inactivity, and possibly due to Nat's inexperience with Steam and PC gaming, she gave the account³⁾ to one of her male friends in 2023 who would name the account nathatpastel, a name he would also be known by. This male friend would use it to be blatantly pedophilic and expose people to lolicon pornography in Garry's Mod multiplayer Sandbox gamemode through the game's voice chat and spray functionality respectively. This would make the account permanently banned from many of the game's popular third-party multiplayer servers, and make him infamously hated in the Garry's Mod multiplayer community.

Currently the account is privated and its name and profile picture were changed to 76561199468409252 (matching the account's SteamID64) and Steam's default profile picture about a year ago, which coincided with [\[nathatpastel\]](#)'s departure from Cumball. However, the account has not been deleted or banned from Steam, and contains no VAC, Game, Community, or Trade bans.

Matrix

Natshiro is an active Matrix user who, by her best friend Marisa's account, has over 200 Matrix accounts on multiple homeservers, but this account remains to be verified. The reason for the large number of accounts is presumed to be due to Nat being banned constantly due to her blatantly pedophilic messages and behavior. Her accounts known by the username natshirotan are presumed to be her most active. Her most recent confirmed ban was being banned from cuteworld.space, but that was caused by that homeserver shutting down. After being "banned", she would create another account under the same username, but on the homeserver pub.solar, which serves as her most recent and most active account. Her reasons for using Matrix are for social interaction, being able to vent her pedophilic sexual frustrations with shotacon pornography or other people, and to talk to Marisa, who prefers to talk on Matrix.

It's unknown whether she is on other platforms as natshirotan, but her occupation is presumed to be a remote job, which allows her the flexibility to have numerous more accounts on other social media under different names.

This is what she has stated her sexuality is in the past. It is unknown whether she has actually harmed any children.
