

Mun Twitter Wiki Rules

This is a fun wiki for the documentation and preservation of certain content. Please be sure that you have the permission to upload, write, or edit the content you are providing before providing it to this wiki.

The following is a list of rules you must follow in order for your wiki content (and user account) to be preserved. Do not resist; there aren't many of these.

- 1. No illegal content whatsoever. Follow United States federal law and Utah state law as well as copyright law.
- 2. No using this wiki as a means to commit illegal activities, included but not limited to leaking private personal information, distributing malware, doing sexual activities of any kind with minors, circumventing the laws in your region and using this wiki to host pirated copyrighted material.
- 3. You must be 18 years of age or older to use this wiki. NSFW content is allowed on this wiki, with or without flags. Use this wiki at your own risk.
- 4. Do not create, upload, or expand any content that only serves the purpose of taking up server space in order to slow down or negatively impact the wiki or its user experience. (i.e. No spam, empty pages, or pages with pure nonsense inside them)
- 5. Do not abuse any wiki loopholes to make pages uneditable, gain an advantage over others, harm the wiki, or harm other users and their pages/content. This also includes frequent vandalizing (Blanking pages, adding irrelevant content, adding spam, excessive use of slurs, swears, or emojis without a good reason.
- 6. No consistently requesting for pages to be unlocked, blanking pages, or policing the wiki whilst not being an admin or superuser.
- 7. If you are creating pages about a new IP, corporation, or anything else, keep it in a specific namespace. (e.g. AltEnt stuff goes in the AltEnt namespace. This is to reduce clutter and to keep everything nice and organized for quicker reading.)
- 8. No Doxxing (e.g. Leaking private information of an individual, uploading an individual's face, or revealing any information about someone without proper, verified, written consent prior to upload.) Consequences include removal of content, then possible IP blacklists and bans.

Rule breaks are punishable by user account deletion, IP blacklists, and reports to applicable law enforcement. We would rather not work with glowing individuals, or put in work to punish you for your sins, so please be reasonable.
