shibadoggo, more commonly known as Shibacuni Fubuki or Osaka is a mysterious member of the Cumball Discord server. They¹⁾ are known for being sporadic, making cute anime women their avatar, asking too many questions, and possibly being a glowie (federal agent).

Shiba is also known for dropping out for months at a time like most Cumball members. It's speculated that they are an alt account used by someone else because of this, but in recent months they have been sporadically active in Cumball, participating in its slow revival after the departure of a few active members.

Osaka arc

Lately, shibadoggo has been infatuated with Osaka (Ayumu Kasuga) from the Anime adaptation of Azumanga Daioh and has her as their profile picture. They also frequently send GIFs, images, and other media of the character and seem to be acting similar to her, bordering on roleplaying.

Shiba is presumed male but they have said they are a girl on multiple occasions.
