Shirakami Fubuki#5744, also known as the impersonator was a short-lived impersonator of the LARP Shirakami Fubuki created and roleplayed by SEXHAVVER41. It was created for both his own entertainment and to get more information out of the LARP it was impersonating. This impersonator also contacted Inugami Korone, which prompted her to immediately and clearly dismantle it.

Lifespan

The account dawned the Shirakami Fubuki persona on or recently before April 21, 2021. Starting the same day, the impersonator would start impersonating Shirakami Fubuki and talk in the same or similar channels as her, frustrating her and causing a quick heated argument over who was the real Fubuki. In the same week, the impersonator would DM the fellow Hololive LARP Inugami Korone, who was quick to notice the impersonator and firmly dismantle its existence and question the source of it.

This impersonator wasn't directly killed by anything, but it was abandoned shortly after its creation by its creator and roleplayer SEXHAVVER41, presumably after he had his fun from impersonating Fubuki.

Other impersonators

There are no other confirmed impersonators of the other Hololive LARPs, but it's presumed that others were planned but weren't executed on because of SEXHAVVER's problems with keeping accounts online, or creating new ones. SEXHAVVER would make his own Hololive LARP, however, Natsuiro Matsuri.
